

Riverdale Bicycle Works

Annual Technical Review 2025

Riverdale Bicycle Works - Leeds, United Kingdom

PI-0 synthetic corpus - document-trees-v1

Table of Contents

1. Company Overview		3
2. Manufacturing Sites	2	4
3. Model Lineup 2025		5

production site in Porto, Portugal, was acquired in 2019 to serve continental customers. assembly and finishing, and the remainder in administration, quality control and sales. A second At the end of 2025 the company employed 214 people, of whom 68 worked in production, 41 in independent dealers in the United Kingdom and Ireland. company designs and assembles bicycle frames in aluminium and carbon fibre and sells through 240 Riverdale Bicycle Works was founded in 1998 by Elena Marsh in a former textile mill in Leeds. The established in 2022 that performs fatigue tests on 40 samples per month. frames per year with a current utilisation of 71 percent. Both sites share a single quality laboratory. The Porto plant, bought in 2019, specialises in carbon lay-up and paint. Its planned capacity is 26,000 touring frames. Planned capacity is 38,000 frames per year, and 2025 output reached 35,900 frames. The Leeds plant operates two welding lines, line A for aluminium city frames and line B for gravel and

Company Overview

Manufacturing Sites

- Swift 3: city, 799 EUR
- Peregrine E: electric, 540 Wh battery, 3,299 EUR
- Owl 26: children, one colour, 449 EUR
- Harrier ST: gravel, 9.6 kg, 1,899 EUR
- Kestrel 700: road, 8.2 kg, 2,499 EUR

The city model Swift 3 completes the range at 799 EUR.

Peregrine E carries a 540 Wh battery, reaches 25 km/h under motor assistance and costs 3,299 EUR.

The children model Owl 26 ships in one colour scheme and costs 449 EUR. The electric model is priced at 2,499 EUR. The gravel model Harrier ST weighs 9.6 kg and costs 1,899 EUR.

Five models were offered in the 2025 season. The road model Kestrel 700 weighs 8.2 kg in size 54 and crown batch.

Model Lineup 2025

crowns was changed in May 2025, and incoming inspection now includes X-ray testing of every fork Dealers replaced the affected forks free of charge within six weeks. The supplier of the forged fork complaints. No injuries were reported.

Harrier ST front forks from batch H-2417, after a weld seam defect was found in three customer

One product recall was issued in 2025. On 11 March 2025 the company announced a recall of 4,200

Quality and Recalls

small operating profit of 0.4 million EUR.

aluminium spot price. Operating expenses rose by 4 percent, and the company closed the year with a
The gross margin reached 27 percent, one point higher than the previous year, mainly due to the lower 31 percent of revenue, with Germany, the Netherlands and Ireland as the largest export markets.

Revenue for 2025 was 12.4 million EUR, an increase of 9 percent over 2024. Export sales accounted for target payload of 180 kg. Series production is not planned before 2027.

Financial Summary

For 2026 the company plans a prototype electric cargo bike under the working name Mule 1, with a 2025. Three test frames were built and are being ridden by employees on a daily commute programme.

The carbon laboratory started a cooperation with Trent University on flax fibre composites in February

Research and Outlook