

Port of Grey Harbor

Vessel Registry Digest 2025

Port of Grey Harbor Authority - Grey Harbor, Oregon

PI-0 synthetic corpus - document-trees-v1

Smaller pleasure craft are registered by the county instead.

The registry covers commercial vessels, fishing vessels and pleasure craft above 12 metres hull length.

the end of 2025. Registration is renewed annually for a flat fee of 240 USD.

The vessel registry of the Port of Grey Harbor was opened in 1904 and lists 3,812 registered vessels at

Registry Overview

			2022
		7,010
Kestrel Arrow	Singapore
			2018
		7,640
Fjord Rose	Norway
			2010
		8,120
Dunlin Trader	Canada
			2021
		9,850
Aster Bay	Liberia
			2019
		10,300
Cape Duchess	Panama
			2014
		11,900
Silver Fir	Marshall Is.
			2008
		12,750
Northern Gannet	Canada
			2016
		38,400
Corva Breeze	Liberia
			2011
		52,000
Meridian Star	Panama
			Built
			DWT (t)
			Flag
Vessel

Table 1: Largest registered commercial vessels, 2025

at the fuel berth, and the remainder are container feeders and general cargo ships.

Three of the largest vessels are bulk carriers serving the grain terminal, two are product tankers calling is the registered carrying capacity of each ship.

The ten largest commercial vessels registered in 2025 are listed in the table below. Deadweight tonnage

Commercial Fleet Register

Heron Point	Panama	6,480	2013
-------------	--------	-------	------

January season, and the fuel berth is reserved for tankers every Tuesday and Friday. Berth occupancy averaged 74 percent in 2025. Grain exports occupy berth 3 to 5 during the October to draught, and two mobile harbour cranes lift up to 100 tonnes each. The port offers 14 berths along two piers. The deepest berth accommodates vessels with 16.5 metres

Berth Allocation

Tug assistance was used on 611 movements during the year.

Three tugs are stationed at the harbour mouth, of which two are tractor tugs with 55 tonnes bollard pull.

above 90 metres length or 6,000 gross tonnage.

Seven licensed pilots handled 2,214 pilotage movements in 2025. Pilotage is compulsory for vessels

Pilotage and Towage

native tree for every 1,000 tonnes of cargo handled, adding 8,400 trees in 2025.

A barge collects oily water and garbage from calling vessels free of charge. The authority plants one 11 percent compared with the 2019 baseline year.

Since 2023 five berths provide shore power for container feeders and tugs. Total port emissions fell by

Environmental Program

the harbour fire unit was 7 minutes.

The safety office completed 46 lockout-tagout audits and 12 emergency drills. Average response time of exceeded one tonne.

feeder and a fender in August, and a crane cable fault in November. Nobody was injured and no spill

Three reportable incidents occurred in 2025: a mooring line failure in March, a minor contact between a

Incidents and Safety

berths. The investment volume of both projects is estimated at 61 million USD. A second shore power substation is designed and will double shore power capacity from five to nine approval is expected in 2026 and construction would start in 2027. The authority plans to extend the breakwater by 240 metres to reduce swell at berths 12 to 14. Planning

Future Projects