

Meridian Community Clinic

Quality and Activity Report 2025

Meridian Community Clinic - Farncombe, United Kingdom

PI-0 synthetic corpus - document-trees-v1

administrative staff, four health care assistants and five allied professionals.

The clinic employed 38 staff at the end of 2025: nine general practitioners, fourteen nurses, six room.

about 24,000 registered patients. The building offers 11 examination rooms and one minor procedure Meridian Community Clinic opened in 2009 in the suburb of Farncombe and provides primary care for length was 12.4 minutes, slightly above the regional average of 11.1 minutes. Telephone and video consultations accounted for 11 percent of all contacts. The average consultation appointments, reflecting the walk-in capacity held open each morning. In 2025 the clinic recorded 52,800 consultations. Of these, 63 percent were offered as same-day

Clinic Overview

Patient Volumes

2025 the team completed 6,100 such calls with a completion rate of 82 percent. Patients with two or more chronic conditions are offered a quarterly review call by the nursing team. In percent, and 68 percent of hypertensive patients reached the blood pressure target. The diabetes register included 1,940 patients in 2025. The median HbA1c value of the register was 7.1

Chronic Disease Program

vaccinated 910 adolescents, using school sessions at four secondary schools in the catchment area. A COVID-19 booster round in spring 2025 delivered 5,320 doses. The HPV catch-up programme patients over 65 years of age. The autumn influenza campaign delivered 14,700 vaccine doses, reaching 71 percent of registered

Vaccination Campaigns

blood testing covers full blood count, CRP and HbA1c with results within ten minutes.

In-house ultrasound is available two days per week and performed 940 examinations. Point-of-care appointment was 26 days.

The clinic made 4,120 specialist referrals in 2025. The median waiting time from referral to first specialist

Referrals and Diagnostics

by 100 percent of clinical staff, and two nurses qualified as prescribers.

The team logged 380 hours of protected training time. Mandatory resuscitation training was completed registrars completed their training year at the clinic.

Staff turnover was 8 percent in 2025, with three retirements and no involuntary departures. Two GP

Staffing and Training

administrative inbox was 1.4 working days during the pilot period.

A patient messaging pilot reached 4,300 enrolled patients. The average first response time of the appointment booking was used for 22 percent of booked appointments in 2025.

The clinic uses a cloud hosted patient record system with two factor authentication for all users. Online

Digital Systems