

Whitmore Printworks

Trade and Archive Report

Whitmore Printworks - Bristol, United Kingdom

T3 synthetic corpus - multilingual-proto-v1 founding hand press in working order.

The works employs 63 people across prepress, press hall and bindery. A small museum room keeps the books and maps for publishers and museums.

Whitmore Printworks was founded in 1954 by Arthur Whitmore and remains family-owned, printing art

Overview

- Bindery: folding, sewing, jackets
- Largest press: 12,000 sheets per hour
- Sheet-fed presses: four for hiking and street maps.

The bindery folds, sews and jackets in-house, and a dedicated map line applies fold-and-varnish lines paper with automatic register control.

Four sheet-fed presses run two shifts; the largest press prints 12,000 sheets per hour on coated art

Facilities

- Revenue 2025: 8.7 million pounds
- FSC share: 41 percent
- Paper 2025: 1,900 tonnes of paper segment of the order book.

Revenue for 2025 was 8.7 million pounds, with reprints of museum catalogues the fastest-growing trade editions.

The works consumed 1,900 tonnes of paper in 2025, of which 41 percent was FSC-certified stock for three years.

Figures

The archive of 70,000 ledger volumes is being catalogued for deposit with the county records office over open to design schools.

A letterpress workshop will reprint museum posters from original wood type, with proofing sessions

Plans